

Spalding Auction is changing it's name, from the start of August we will be the

Spalding Horticultural Centre

WHAT IS ACTUALLY HAPPENING?

We will still have three main areas of the business as we do now, but we are refreshing our branding logos & signage, the three areas will be divisions of the Spalding Horticultural Centre

Spalding Auction Horticultural Supplies Florist Supplies

WHY ARE WE DOING THIS?

We feel that due to the nature of what we do just being called Spalding Auction doesn't fully describe all aspects, and whilst our loyal customers are aware we are a horticultural auction, new customers searching for these services may struggle to find us.

HOW WILL THIS AFFECT ME?

In short very little, the bank accounts will remain the same, the paperwork will look the same, we will deliver the same service and product range as before, but with new logos, fresh signage and staff in smart new uniforms.

Spalding Horticultural Centre, Horticultural Supplies, Florist Supplies are trading names of Spalding Auction and Spalding Auction Ltd
