Market Report

FOR WEEK ENDING: 23/1/26

Prices Shown - Average to Top Quality

Cut Flowers

Overall, it is a case of slim pickings of Cut Flowers being available. A rare outing of both bunched Eucalyptus and bunched Myrtle jostle for top spot in the buyers wish lists. With all of the varieties of Daffodils taking third spot on the podium.

Description	Per:	Average		Best
Daffodils	Bunch	£0.80	-	£1.20
Eucalyptus	Bunch	£1.00	-	£1.30
Myrtle	Bunch	£3.00	-	£3.00
Tulips	Wrap	£7.00	-	£10.00

Fruit & Vegetables

As the cold weather continues, our vendors continue to provide us the best quality of produce they have available. The issues caused by the icy conditions earlier in the month are slowly being highlighted as high quality cauliflowers become very difficult to obtain. This is reflected in the prices being paid not only in the auction, but, also in the wholesale markets. Cabbage is unaffected by the weather as we get plenty of boxes of fantastic January King, Big Savoy cabbages, Primo and Tundra, all are cleared throughout the week. Onion sales increase and prices match demand. Potatoes remain at an even price to previous weeks, with a total of 8.5 tonnes sold during this week's sales.

Plants and Seasonal Sundries

Despite a wonderful array of various coloured plants being on offer, buyers seem to err on the side of caution. Discerning buyers seem to seek out single shelves of various plants to fill their loads instead of full trollies, to offer a variety of lines to the uncertain selling conditions. As January seeming to be a long month before pay days.
