Cut Flowers

A good week for flower sales in the aftermath following Mother's Day, with a healthy attendance of buyers seeking out all things floral. Daffodils remain in a buoyant mood with price returns healthy on all days. Tulip prices ease back after a recent strong run, as buyers take a break for other floral lines. A scintillating Spring Bouquets assortment clear with ease. That old, imported favourite, the Alstroemeria helps to paint smiles across many buyers' faces.

Plants and Seasonal Sundries

The continuing presence of "la Grande Solei D'or" brings on a fresh wave of horticultural delights. With "grow your own" high on newsfeed headlines, it is apt we feature an all encompassing array of Fruit and Vegetable plants, including Runner Beans, Peas, Cucumbers, Courgettes, Strawberries, as well as Tomatoes. Bacopa and Fuchsias are both highly desired, despite the ever present frosty nights. Dicentras perform well for the second week in a row! A super shiny showing of Cineraria "Senettis" attract a host of bids. Clearance prices are the best potted bulbs can hope for, with copious volumes remaining unsold.

Fruit & Vegetables

After another week of beautiful weather, our buyers are out in force trying to secure all they need for the busy weekend ahead. Vendors continue to show concern over the warm weather ahead, due to the risk of damage to their crops. A nice showing of imported fruits and salad lines offer something a little different to help customers increase trade. Double yolk chicken Eggs continue to sell well along with our mixed Herbs and Norfolk flat Mushroom. Rhubarb starts to drop in price as we reach the third week of the season, dropping 40p per lb on previous weeks. Brassica prices continue to hold up nicely, all providing strong returns, whilst Purple Sprouting and White Sprouting Broccoli continues to fall in value.
