Market Report

Cut Flowers

Despite cut flowers normally being the go to line, trade ebbs and flows according to the samples on offer. A bumper selection of Rose Bouquets allows buyers to pick and choose their lots, with some traders thinking we had “eclipsed” back to February, for the Valentine’s trade, despite it being in mid-August.

Fruit & Vegetables

With the weather causing continued problems, customers remain cautious on what they buy. Despite the issues throughout the industry, our vendors still bring in plenty of variety to tempt our buyer to ‘take a punt’ on different produce. Brassicas continue to come into the auction at a steady pace, for how long though, who knows. Potatoes continue the upward trend, with good prices achieved all week. Root vegetables sell well as the current season come to a close. New season onions are greatly received with good volumes sold throughout the week. Our market lines are plentiful and greatly received by our eager buyers
